

What About College?

Often parents are concerned about the ability their son or daughter will have in being accepted by a college or university. Gloucester County Christian School has a good record of preparing students for college. Eighty to ninety percent of our graduates go to institutions of higher education, and about two-thirds of those students go to a Christian college or university. The following is a list of the colleges and universities to which our students have been accepted:

- Atlantic County College
- Baptist Bible College, Pa.
- Bible Baptist Inst., West Chester
- Bible Baptist School of Theology
- Bob Jones University
